Great Adventures Near and Far

Don't miss Great Adventures Near and Far featuring over 80 never-before-seen images along with the happy and sometimes harrowing stories that highlight great adventures of Byron residents, from tales of early settlers to travels around the world. The calendar also includes 100+ news articles and tidbits of everyday Byron events in 1917. It was a time when the automobile was transforming rural life and US entry into World War I called upon the young men of the community to prepare for adventures on the battlefields of Europe. Click on the photograph name index for a listing of individuals portrayed in the calendar.
