Holidays and Celebrations in the Town of Byron

The Holidays and Celebrations in the Town of Byron calendar features over 100 images that capture the spirit of the town's many holidays and celebrations, commemorating the special events of residents from the early 1900s to current times. More than 100 news articles from 1915 offer a flavor of Byron life 100 years ago. In addition to photographs of Halloween, Memorial Day, Veterans Day, Christmas, Easter, the 4th of July and other holidays, the souvenir calendar highlights graduations and birthdays, reunions and proms, potato sack races on the last day of school, the birth of triplets and many more events that mark celebrations in Byron's history. Click on the photograph name index for a listing of individuals included in the calendar.
